Think about the Bible like you never have before

Dear Jane,

Thank you for writing us at Christian Questions. You wanted to know if one could study, practice and preach the word of God while drinking alcohol.

While we can attest that on rare occasions there have been people who do not seem to be affected by alcohol, for the vast majority of people that is not the case. The impairment that may come from alcohol (obviously we are not speaking about a glass of wine with dinner) does not belong with the sacred word of God in any way, shape or form. We believe that to attempt to teach or preach God's word while under the influence is to insult the purity of God and his plan.

We hope we have answered your question. Be sure to sign up for CQ Rewind at www.christianquestions.com. The service is free without obligation and will provide you with scriptural perspective on many questions and topics.

Sincerely,
